

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 27, 2007

RigMaster Power Corp. announces a new financing partnership for its APU's. Offered by Lease Corporation of America (LCA) and available through RigMaster's extensive dealer network, financing an APU can help customers reap the fuel savings benefits of an APU immediately without draining the bank account.

"Comprehensive financing solutions will be a vital component in the future of the APU industry. Aligning our product offerings with an industry leader like LCA is a perfect business fit for both companies", remarks RigMaster's General Manager, Gary Lisson, "LCA has proven experience in the industry, understands our customers and can offer competitive rates that will prove to be a valuable tool for our customers. Owner/Operators and small fleets will truly benefit from a funding resource such as Lease Corporation of America."

LCA is a full service, direct finance, leasing company and a recognized leader in the APU financing industry offers flexible and easy to use lease programs for its vendors, brokers and commercial customers.

RigMaster Power Corp. manufactures and distributes the RigMaster Power APU in North America through a network of over 180 independent sales and service locations. For more information, log on to www.rigmasterpower.com.
